VOL. XXVI BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 10, 1895. NO. 40

AN UNLIMITED WATER SUPPLY

Bellefonte's Big Spring Not Affected by the Drouth.

IT NEVER VARIES AN INCH

No Purer Water Can be Found in the Country Than is Pumped Daily All Over the Town.

At the present time there is a terrible drouth throughout the entire state of Pennsylvania. A constant cry for water is being heard on all sides. If Bellefonte were to be suddenly deprived of her water supply, the citizens would then realize what excellent water has been flowing in Bellefonte without any restraint ever since there has been such a town in existence.

The water supply in our beautiful city has always been so unlimited that we can hardly realize the condition and suffering of those places where water is scarce. Perhaps there is no other town in the United States where water of such a good quality is found and greatest of all where there is such an unlimited amount. The Big Spring has always supplied the residents with the best of drinking water and doubtlessly this will be the case forever. This spring is 85 feet long and 65 feet wide, with a depth of 8 feet. The spring never varies an inch. No matter whether there be heavy rains or a bad drouth, it always remains at its normal condition. Through a 12-inch main, the water is pumped all over town, the capacity of the flow being 14,600 gallons per minute. Two steam pumps and two water pumps are placed in the water works to handle this supply and 297,000 gallons of water are constantly being pumped into the reservoir.

The system of supplying the town with water has been so perfected that in case of fire, the water can be pumped specially to the point wanted; and at no time is there any place in the town where the water supply is limited.

Under the careful supervision of Superintendent Samuel Ryan, ably assisted by his son C. R. Ryan, the water-works are always kept in good repair. The machinery is kept in the best of trim and to this fact can be attributed the excellent results that are always obtained as regards the water service in our town. Mr. Ryan is the right man in the right place and the fact that he has had charge of Bellefonte's water-works for sixteen years is the best testimonial of his good services. About 2½ tons of coal per day of 14 hours is used in furnishing the water to the town and a car load is constantly kept on hand in case of emergency. But one steam pump is necessary to force enough water to meet the demand, but a water wheel is kept going night and day.

No clearer or purer water can be found in the country than we have right here at our doors at all hours of the day or night. Clear as crystal it is indeed a grand sight to see our big spring on a sunny afternoon or a moonlight night. During the day even the smallest particle in the spring can be clearly seen from any part of the yard surrounding the water, and hardly a stranger ever comes to town who does not make it a special point of seeing the object of Bellefonte's pride. A pretty gravel walk has been made around the spring, and the cozy benches in the yard are constantly occupied by visitors who come out to see such a thing of beauty. From the south-east corner of the spring can be seen the sparkling water coming bubbling out from some unknown source; and at no time has this out-flow ever changed. To stand and look at the water as it comes rolling out from in under the rocks, seeming to laugh in derision at the towns where water is now almost unknown, one can scarcely believe that there are thousands suffering every day from thirst.

Bellefonte greatly prides herself on her spring, but we could never realize its real worth unless it should go dry. But such will never be the case. The town derived it's name from this "belle of the fountain" and standing as long as it has, the beauty mark of the mountain city, it seems to send forth a challenge to the hardest drouth, with a confident air that victory is her's without any doubt.

To one who has never seen it, it is indeed a marvelous sight, and to drink of its waters is one of the greatest pleasures that any one could experience. In our big spring, Bellefonte has one of the grandest works of nature ever known; and to say that it is appreciated, especially at the present time, is saying the least that could be said in that respect. It is truly "a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

FIERY FURNACE ENTOMBS MINERS.

A Fearful Explosion of Gas in a Wilkesbarre Mine.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 8.—An awful explosion of gas in the Dorrances colliery today snuffed out the lives, it is believed, of four mining engineers, fatally burned two men, while several others were badly injured and 15 are still entombed. Whether they are alive or dead is unknown. A large force of rescuers are at work, and they hope to find the missing miners before morning. Those supposed to be killed are:

Wm. Jones, aged 24, mining engineer, of Wilkesbarre; Wm. Cahill, aged 19, of Pittston, formerly of Brewery Hill; Lewellyn Owens, aged 22, surveyor, of Pittston; Daniel Davis, aged 35, fire boss, of Wilkesbarre.

Missing and Injured: Thomas Samuels, aged 48, inside foreman, of Wilkesbarre; Robert Miller, aged 20, surveyor, Wilkesbarre, seriously burned on head and body and arm broken; Robert Blanchard, aged 17, surveyor, of Parsons, burned seriously on the head and body, may recover; George Laphey, aged 35, laborer, of Whisky Hill, seriously burned; Joe Murphy, aged 17, driver boy, badly cut and bruised, left arm broken; Michael Morris, aged 35, laborer, burned, and is dying.

There are 15 other miners thought to be entombed in the colliery. The Dorrance colliery is owned by the Lehigh Valley Coal company. The accident occurred just as work for the day was ending. The engineers and their helpers had been in the mines since morning, and were approaching the mouth of the shaft, when Jones, who was chief of the corps, decided to survey a cross heading from the Baltimore vein. This is but a few hundred feet from the bottom of the shaft. Jones, who was to direct the survey, and thus save a journey on the morrow, took with him Owens, Cahill and Davis, ordering the others to wait for him in the gangway. They lounged about the opening of the cross-heading while Engineer Jones and his assistants entered. The last words of the young chief were: "I'll be back in 15 minutes boys, you wait there."

His Enimies Were Hostile.

Canton, O., Oct. 8.—An effort was made last night to blow up the residence of G Schlemmer Jr. Just as Schlemmer got out ofbed, being awakened by noise in the house a missile whirled past him and exploded on the staircase with terrific force, shattering the stairs and wrecking the ceiling. Fragments found show it to have been a dynamite bomb. Schlemmer, his wife and four children, were in the house but none were injured. Persons with whom a dispute was had and was threatened vengeance are suspected.

Garved Up With Knives.

Pennsboro, W. Va., Oct. 8.—Saturday morning two young men living near Rutherford, Ritchie county, named Twiford and Thomas, while returning from a dance, became involved in a dispute and decided to fight it out. After a couple of rounds Twiford drew a knife and began cutting his opponent, who also drew a knife, and a terrible battle followed, the men carving each otder to pieces, Thomas is reported dead, while Twiford is fatally injured. The men, who had been drinking heavily during the night, were close friends previous to the quarrel.

Practicing Every Evening.

At a meeting of the Academy foot ball eleven J. R. Hughs was elected Captain, Charles McClure, Manager and James Lane President. The team has a practice game every evening and the men are showing up well. The best players of last year's team are on the team this year and the way they are handling the pig-skin gives every indication of a strong team. The eleven is being prefected in team work under the careful guidance of Captain Hughes, and unless something unforseen happens, this year's team will be the strongest in the history of the Academy.

He Will Have to Hang.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 7.—Wm. Penn Bowman, aged 19 years, was found guilty some months ago of the murder of Mike John, an Arabian peddler. His attorneys appealed the case to the supreme court which to-day affirmed the decision of the lower court. Bowman will have to hang unless the governor interferes. George Metzger, his pal in the same crime, was but recently captured and is now in prison awaiting trial.

The Liberty Bell Tour.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 8.—The old Liberty bell arrived here this evening after having been on exhibition to many thousands of people at railroad stations in the Roanoke and East Tennessee valleys. Whenever the train stopped. Sunday school and patriotic and other orders and organizations greeted the bell. The train stopped here for the night.

They also reported that they repaired several pavements on Spring and Curtin streets. Malarial Bitters.

DECATUR, Ill., Aug. 26, 1893.

We consider that we have not only saved our lives but also our house and home by the use of Aunt Rachael's Peruvian Malarial Bitters. We have been sick with malarial fever the past two years and not able to work sufficient to pay interest and taxes on our home and keep our family. We have used Aunt Rachel's Peruvian Malarial Bitters two months and we are rejoiced to say that our health has been restored and we are free from malarial fevers and chills.

ONE KILLED AND MANY INJURED

Fatal Result of a Church Ceremony in Which the Platform Collapses.

Lorain, O., Oct. 8.—To-day was appointed for the laying of the corner stone of St. Mary's Catholic church. The foundation for the new building extended for about 10 feet above the basement bottom, and on this foundation was erected a rough platform, where the ceremonies were held, and where a vast part of the crowd had collected. It is thought that almost 2,000 people were standing on this rudely constructed floor, when a section of it, containing about 300 people, sank beneath its burden and precipitated them into the pit beneath. The pit resembled an inverted roof of a very steep slant, the ends being closed up by stone walls, and into this death trap there were crowded men women, and children, in a struggling screaming and fainting mass. Those at the top of the mass easily escaped, but when the pit was partly emptied these victims still entrapped could not clamber up the steep sides, and they trampled over each other in their efforts to escape like wild animals, the stronger ones getting on top, and the weak being crushed beneath the greater weight. The following is the list as far as ascertained:

Killed: Mary Weber, aged three years daughter of Mat Weber, of Sheffield.

Badly hurt: Nellie Dollard, of Lorain, [illegible] Nicholas Wagner, leg crushed; [illegible] Fos, of Sheffield, both legs broken; Mrs. William Burgett, of Lorain, hurt internally; Mrs. Mary Latimer, of Carlisle Centre, leg crushed; Mrs. Mary O'Kefe, of Lorain, hurt internally; John Marti, of Lorain, left leg broken; John Eueto, of Lorain, back hurt; Mr. I. M. Brue, of Hoganville, left ankle broken; Wm. Ryan, of Lorain, leg broken; Mrs. O'Kefe, of Lorain, leg crushed, will have to be amputated.

"I pray you, Master Lieuten," said Sir Toms Moore, as he ascended the scaffld, "see me safe up, and for my coming down I can shift." "A dauntless soul rect, who smiled at death." said Thompson. He suffered martyrdom but once at the hand of the headsman, but how many suffer it every day through the slow but insidious hand of disease. put his faith in Princes and was lost, [illegible] yours, Oh! sufferd female in the curative properties of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and be saved from hours of suffering. A Card of Thanks.

Now that the conference year is almost gone and we shall leave to-morrow to attend, and report our work, to the Pittsburg Annual conference of the A. M. E. church, which will convene at Wilkesbaare Pa., Oct. 10, we gratefully acknowledge through the press every act of kindness and favors bestowed upon us this year by the good friends of Bellefonte. The citizens of Bellefonte who are intelligent, progressive and benevolent have been our friends, and whether we shall be returned here or appointed to another charge we shall ever remember them at the throne of grace.

CURTIN MONUMENT TO BE ERECTED

Milesburg Post G. A. R. No. 261, Claims to be the First Subscriber.

WHO WILL BE THE NEXT?

If Anything is to be Done in This Matter it Should be Pushed Through at Once.

Post No. 261 G. A. R. of Milesburg, voted at their regular monthly meeting on Saturday evening to give one hundred dollars ($100) towards the erection of the Curtin monument to be placed in the Diamond in front of the Court house. This Post claims to be the first on the list of G. A. R. Posts to subscribe towards this movement.

Now that the ice has been broken, let the good work go on. All the money necessary could be easily secured by other G. A. R. Posts throughout the state following the example of the one in Milesburg which has made such a liberal gift.

That such a monument will be erected is certain, but unless Bellefonte hustles it will go some place else. No other city in the state has a better claim on it than Bellefonte, for it was the home of the War Governor all his life. Sometime ago when this matter was discussed it was discovered that Harrisburg, Williamsport, Altoona, and several other places were desirous of having the monument. But it belongs to Bellefonte and we are going to have it here. It would not only be a fitting tribute to the memory of the great statesman, but it would be one of the greatest honors that could be bestowed upon the town.

It is to be hoped that the veterans and citizens of Centre county will send out earnest appeals for subscriptions from other Posts for they can accomplish more than any other class of people. Every old soldier has a warm spot in his heart for the name of Gov. Curtin and if the matter were taken hold of by these people the entire amount would be subscribed in a short time.

The Milesburg Post is certainly entitled to great praise for its noble offer and it also shows considerable get-up for its action at the meeting on Saturday evening. If a Post the size of the one at Milesburg can show such pluck and patriotic feeling in this matter, surely the other Posts in the state can do something likewise. It should be an honor to any organization to subscribe to such an enterprise and it is thought that if the matter were brought to attention of these associations they would respond liberally.

Upon the shoulders of the citizens of Bellefonte rests a duty; and this duty should be cheerfully complied with. Unless our own townsmen take this matter up, and take it up at once, there is a poor chance for the monument being located here. Think what a disgrace it would be to Bellefonte if some other city should secure this monument. It would be the regret of every person in Bellefonte whether he be young or old. If erected here it would be an object of pride forever and it is the least that could be done to mark the esteem in which the deceased citizen, neighbor and Governor was held.

What a gloom was cast over the land when it was announced that Gov. Curtin had breathed his last. Think what a glory it would be now to erect this monument in remembrance of him who has lately passed away. Once erected, it would stand forever. We could only look upon it in reverence; and our children would grow up to point it out to others as one of the grandest works ever done by the citizens of Bellefonte.

That the monument is wanted here is very evident by the way in which the matter was discussed some time ago. But then talk alone will accomplish nothing. If this monument is to be placed in Bellefonte—and it is to be—the work relative to doing it must be commenced at once. It could be easily accomplished if the other Grand Army Posts and the citizens of Bellefonte in general proceeded in the matter in the way the Milesburg Post did, namely by going ahead and planking down their subscription. Let the various organizations in Bellefonte first put up their own amounts towards this fund and then look elsewhere for the balance. If this is done it will go a great way towards influencing other towns and cities to contribute, and until this is done there is no use in trying to make the movement a success.

Bought a New Folder.

A new folder of the latest pattern has been placed in the Democrat office. It is a great help as it cuts, pastes and folds the paper, thus saving considerable time in running off the paper. It is of the same styled folder as that used in the Tribune office in Altoona.

ANOTHER DEATH AT COLEVILLE

Typhoid Fever Ravages Continue in That Village.

Another death has occurred in Coleville—that plague stricken village which seems to be getting no healthier. This time that dreaded disease, typhoid fever carried off Mrs. Edward Poorman, after an illness of three weeks. Wednesday afternoon the condition of Mrs. Poorman was thought to be slightly improved but towards evening she gradually commenced to sink and at 7 o'clock the death angel entered and carried away a devoted wife and a kind and loving mother. A husband and four small children are left behind and the saddest part is that two of the little ones are not yet a year old. The deceased was 26 years old, and was a highly respected person in that community.

Drs. Hibler and Tobin were in attendance at the time of Mrs. Poorman's death, and worked hard to save her life. She took convulsions in connection with the fever which soon ended her suffering.

The funeral will be held on Friday at 2 o'clock. Rev. Young, of Pleasant Gap will officiate.

The death roll at Coleville is growing so large from the results of this dreaded disease that a death in that community is almost a daily occurrence and it is time that something is done to stop the cause. For acause for all this disease there surely is, and it can not be too quickly remedied.

More than fifteen people have already died from this plague and still nothing more than a passing notice seems to be made of it. If the same number of people were killed in a railroad accident, it would be considered a terrible affair and talked about for months.

A health committee should visit this village and remove the filth and garbage that is lying around. This might be the means of stopping some of the sickness, at least it could do no harm. All sorts of infectious odors arise from such sources and do no end of harm. Something must be done to save the lives of the people at this place or soon there will be no such a village in existence. Outside help must be had if anything is to be accomplished. In the name of all that is human, help these unfortunate people.

May Possibly Be Afraid of the U. P

Princeton, N. J. Oct. 6.—Captain Lea, of Princeton foot ball team was seen today in regard to the offer made by the Philadelphia Inquirer of a cup valued at $1,000 to be given to the winner of a Princeton-Pennsylvania game could be arranged for this year. The cup would become the property of the team winning such a game for three years in succession.

Captain Lea was much suprised at the offer. He stated that it would be impossible to arrange a game this year, giving as his reasons that there is no date open on which the teams of the two rival colleges might meet.

Charged With Counterfeiting.

Meadville, Oct. 6.—E. Blystone, Ezra Blystone, and Ralph Von Auler, all prosperous farmers residing near Venango borough, this county, were arrested by United States detectives, charged with counterfeiting the silver dollar of 1894, and five cent pieces. The two former gave bail in $1,500 each before United States Commissioner Colter, of this city. Van Auler was committed to jail in default of bail. Nothing was discovered on the premises of the accused but a single counterfeit nickle in the pocket of one of the accused.

Preached His Farewell Sermon.

The A. M. E. church was well attended both morning and evening yesterday. There was a good reason for the large turnout of the congregation as it was the last Sunday that Rev. H. A. Grant would occupy the pulpit during the present conference year. Rev. Grant delivered a plain sermon which was to the point and his large congregation was deeply impressed with his words. It has been Rev. Grant's rule throughout the whole year to preach plain sermons so that even the smallest child could comprehend his meaning. It is this fact that made him so popular here among his congregation and the loss will be deeply felt if the conference sends him some place else next year. It is to be hoped he will return and continue the good work he has already done during his stay in Bellefonte.

Bible Reading On Friday.

Mr. Jas. M. Conkey of Wrightsville Pa. will give a Bible reading on the Sunday school lesson, at the W. C. T. U. Friday afternoon Oct. 11th at 2:45 o'clock. These readings are highly interesting and instructive and the attendance each week is on the increase. Sunday school teachers should make a special effort to be present next Friday afternoon.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN OWN THE CITY.

Forty-Five Thousand People Crowd the Streets in Reading.

Reading, Oct. 3.—To-day marked an epoch in the history of the twelve fire companies of this city that will be remembered as the greatest demonstration and the largest assemblage of fire fighters ever held in this state. All roads seemed to lead to Reading this morning, for from every direction came crowds of sightseers. The thousands of firemen were augmented by thousands of other visitors from every portion of Berks and adjoining counties. At noon it was estimated from figures that the city contained 45,000 strangers bent on viewing the parade.

The parade moved promptly at 1.30 o'clock and enthusiasm reigned all along the line. Every company was on dress parade and the thousands who lined the sidewalks were not slow in showing their appreciation of the fine marching of the handsomely equipped companies.

A feature of the first division was a float upon which the old hand engine of the Rainbow company was exhibited. It was made in 1773 and the firemen who represented the volunteers of the days gone by gave it a true representation. The engine was on a big wagon, wh ch was gaily decorated with flags and bunting.

In the second division the Independence, of Philadelphia, had with them their old time hand engine, which is in a good state of preservation. The Fame, of West Chester, had its ambulance in line, while the First hose, of Greensburg, drew their old two-wheeled hose carriage.

In the third division the Reading hose had their second class Silsby engine drawn by the company's four handsome gray horses. Two gray horses drew the Silsby hose carriage. With the Reading also marched a delegation from the Hydrant Hose company, No. 1, of Geneva, N. Y.

In the fifth division marched two men who are competing for the prize for the smallest fireman in the line of parade. They were Joseph P. Moyer and Andrew Rhoads, both members of the Friendship company, of this city.

The Darktown fire brigade, which marched with this division, was one of the most unique and interesting in line. They numbered twenty-five, all with blackened faces, and wore red shirts and fire hats. Some of them rode antiquated looking horses. With them was an old hose carriage and a truck upon which was rigged a ladder, upon which the ebony hued firemen gave exhibitions.

Hoke Smith Will Breathe Easier.

Washington, Oct. 3.—There will be no arraignment of Secretary Smith's administration of the Indian bureau, interior department, by the Catholic bishops, either in the form of charges to be investigated by congress or otherwise. Cardinal Gibbons himself, in an interview to-day, made the statement. He said: "The archbishops and bishops will never make a united petition to congress, no matter how grave the circumstances or how grieveous the complaint. If the Catholic church has reason to believe that its rights are infringed upon, or its members unfairly treated, it will simply ask for justice as citizens of the United States; they will never demand satisfaction as a body of powerful prelates supported by millions o voters. Such action would be contrary to their high rerogative of the exponents of the great teacher of charity and humility."

Off to the Mountains.

A jolly party was that which took hacks and carriages this morning about eight o'clock to drive to the Snow Shoe mountains to hunt chestnuts. They took their dinner with them to eat in the woods. Those who went along are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bower, B. C. Achenbach and wife, A. C. Mingle and wife, Frank Naginey and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Krumrine, W. G. Runkle, Mrs. Shadle, Messrs. Trone and Wetzell, Miss Ida Gerberich and Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Conley.

The evening educational classes at the Y. M. C. A. rooms will commence on October 15, and from present indications they will be largely attended this winter. They proved a big help to the young men last winter and we expect still greater results from the present course.

DURANT MAKING A HARD FIGHT

Lawyers for the Defense Have Their Hands Full.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—A monotonous morning session in the Durant trial to-day was relieved by the contempt of court proceedings in the case of Secretary H. J. McCoy, of the Young Men's Christian association, who, last Thursday, remarked to a juror in the case that he the juror would be hanged if he did not vote to convict Durant. McCoy admitted the conversation, but said it had been made in jest and to a juryman who was an old friend of his. He regretted the remark the moment it was uttered and had regretted it ever since He said he had nothing against Durant and his remarks had no significance.

Judge Sanderson, of the superior court, who over heard the remark and reported it to Judge Murphy, said that McCoy did not deliver the utterance in the manner of a man who really contemplated violence to a juryman. The court said he was satisfied that McCoy meant nothing by his remark else he would imprison him for the limit allowed by law. As it was he fined him with $250 or an alternative of five days in jail, but suspended judgment until Saturday.

The attempt of the defense to sustain the roll call for Dr. Cheney's lecture on the afternoon of April 3, on which Durant's name appeared, failed in an important particular to-day. The roll showed that Student C. L. Garvin was absent from the lecture.

Garvin testified that he was present. Durant's counsel sought to show that Garvin had been absent from a clinic the day before, the roll call of which was on a page opposite to that containing the roll call of the 3d, and that this caused confusion and a transposition of the absence mark. In this they failed, as Mr. Garvin said he did not know whether he attended the clinic or not.

Durant's counsel claimed that on April 3 Durant, accompanied by F. K. Ross, another student, left the college at 12.30 and took a walk from which they did not return until 1.30, when Durant went to the college and remained until the close of the lecture at 4.30. Ross was put on the stand this afternoon, but he could not positively say on what day the walk was taken. He was not certain that it was in April.

R. H. Carter, another student who met Durant and Ross while on the walk, could not fix the date.

Several more of the students of Durant's class were called to-day, but none could say whether he was at the lecture on the afternoon of April 3 or not.

The proceedings of the day closed with contempt proceedings against Miss Carrie Cunningham, a reporter who refused to divulge the name of the person from whom she got the information that Mrs. Leak saw Durant enter the Emanuel church with a young lady when he was thought to have gone thither with Blanche Lamont Miss Cunningham was given until to-morrow morning to answer with an alternative of imprisonment.

Postoffice Irregularities Discovered.

Blairsville, Pa., Oct. 4.—Irregularities amounting to about $540 have been discovered in the postoffice at Knights, Westmoreland county, John C. Layton, postmaster. Inspector Hooten has placed the office in the hands of Layton's bondsmen. The latter have appointed Miss Maggie Harvey postmistress. Layton has not been arrested and is trying to reimburse his bondsmen.

Almost Finished.

Early Friday morning workmen commenced to move the effects in Parrish's drug store and to-day they are almost through. The handsome oak furniture shows up well with the large plate mirrors in the rear end of the store. The new fixtures about his soda fountain are something fine, and greatly admired by every one who sees them.

In a Dynamite Plot.

Canton, O., Oct. 3.—Several weeks ago the stone crusher at the work house was blown up by dynamite. It develops that the deed was substituted when one more atrocious failed. A detective working among tramps on another case heard the story reviewed. The plan was to blow up Supt. Pontius, of the work house, by calling him to the door and throwing dynamite into his face, but Pontius was not at home. The men waited at the end of the street car line for him. He missed the last car and was compelled to walk home. Then the dynamite was used on the stone crusher. William Shanks, of New Philadelphia, is under arrest for the crime.

Liberty Bell Bound South.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—The old Liberty bell, which will be exhibited at the Atlanta exposition, was this afternoon removed from Independence Hall to the Pennsylvania railroad freight station, where it will remain until to-morrow morning, when the journey South will be begun. A parade was given this afternoon when the bell was removed, Mayor Warwick and the heads of the different municipal department reviewing the procession from the Union League club house. The bell will be accompanied southward by Mayor Warwick and a councilmanic committee, and Atlanta will be reached on Tuesday.

No One Believed It.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Dispatches stating that Secretary Olney had given Great Britain ninety days in which to accede to arbitration in the Venezuelan boundary dispute are pronounced at the state department absurdities on their face. The United States has made an urgent representation in favor of arbitration and has transmitted to Ambassador Bayard a carefully prepared brief presenting the Venezuelan view of the case as adopted by the United States, and there the matter rests for the present.

Blair County Commissioners to Be Tried.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., Oct. 3.—In the prosecution against County Commissioners James Funk and John Hurd for misdemeanors in office, the Blair county court to-day refused to quash the indictments and directed them to stand their trial next Monday. The court also held that solicitation to commit perjury is a common law offense and that Commissioner Hurd must answer this charge before a jury.

An Enjoyable Evening.

The entertainment at the A. M. E church Friday was fine and greatly enjoyed by every one present. Those taking part in the performance deserve to be highly complimented for the admirable way in which they played their parts. The Towawa debate was exceptionally good and well argued on both sides. A collection was taken up during the evening for the benefit of the curch.

The second contest was a horse race for companies outside the state. Those competing were the Columbia, of Peekskill and the Columbia Engine company, of the same place.

In the hook and ladder race, the Friendship, of Boyertown, ran 200 yards and threw up a thirty foot ladder in forty-three seconds. The other contestants did not show up.

Doings of Episcopalians.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 4.—When the delegates to the house of deputies of the Episcopal church reassembled this morning a resolution thanking the Governor and legislature of Texas for their action in preventing the proposed prize fight was presented and adopted by an overwhelming majority. A joint meeting of the bishops and deputies as a board of missions followed. Bishop Whipple presided and in his opening address reviewed the passage of the mission movement for half a century.

As he resumed his seat he said, with emphasis, "that the apostolic church had something greater to do than the passing of canons," and this pointed rap at the one absorbing idea of the revisionists created a momentary buzz, signifying either surprise or approval. The remainder of the morning session was occupied with mission matters.

DISEASES OF MEN ONLY

MAKE MEN STRONG, DISEASED MEN

THE RESULT of ignorance and folly, quackery, overexertion of mind and body, indiscretion, has ruined the happiness of thousands of young men, some of whom denied whether at an early age or at the blossom of manhood, while others are forced to drag out a weary, fruitless and melancholy existence. Others reach middle age but have no solace or comfort there. The victims are found in all stations of life. The farm, the shop, the workbench, the pulpit, the trades and the professions.

1 Her Reason.

THE St. James's Budget, the weekly edition of the St. James's Gazette, London, one of the most conservative and authoritative of English journals, in its issue of July 27, ends its review of the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary, as follows:

"Nothing can be more complete than this, nothing more exhaustive. . . . The excellencies of this book are so bewildering that whateyer might be said of them there would be as much remaining to be said. To say that it is perfect in form and scope is not extravagance of praise, and to say that it is the most valuable Dictionary of the English language is but to repeat the obvious. The Standard Dictionary should be the pride of literary America, as it is the admiration of literary England."

The English critics on all sides, show no hesitation in placing this new American Dictionary above all similar British works.

The Leeds Mercury in a review just published says:

"We have no hesitation in stating that the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary is the best and most complete Dictionary of the English Language now in existence."

John Bull can be generously fair when he tries to be, but he cannot help but show just a little natural sensitiveness at being constrained to look elsewhere for a Dictionary of his own language: 'Strange,' the London Literary World exclaims in speaking of the Standard Dictionary, "that the Queen's English should find its chief autocrats in the country of the President."

Harrisburg, Sept. 25.—To-morrow Gov. Hastings will go over the department reports printed during the last year for the the purpose of correcting the alleged abuses of the state printer. Complaints have been so frequent regarding poor quality of work and unnecessary delays that they cannot longer be ignored. Some of the work may be ordered elsewhere, in which event the state printer will have to foot the bills.

When a person is losing flesh and wasting away there is cause for alarm. Nothing so worries a physician. Consumptives would never die if they could regain their usual weight. In fact there would be no consumption if there were no wasting of the system. The cause of this loss of flesh is a failure to properly digest the food eaten. Nine tenth of all our diseases date back to some derangment of the stomach.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial will stop this wasting of the body. It acts by causing the food we eat to be digested so as to do good, for undigested food does more harm than good. The Cordial contains food already digested and a digester of food as well.

Every mother hates to make her child take Castor Oil. Loxol is sweet Castor Oil.

You Can't Get Rich

by going the $500 reward by Dr. Pierce to any person finding a poisonous injurious drug in his "Pleasant Pellets" for there's no such thing in them. But you can get well—and health is the first step towards fortune—by taking "Pellets" whenever troubled with biliousness, constipation, jaundice and other derangements of the liver, and blood.

Pineola Cough Balsam

Is excellent for all throat inflamations and for asthma. Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use, as it quickly abates the cough, renders expectoration easy, assisting nature in restoring wasted tissues. There is a large percentage of those who suppose their cases to be consumption who are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50c. per bottle; Pineola Balsam 25c, at druggists. In quantities of $2.50 will deliver on receipt of amount.

Beginning to See.

The merchants and other business men in Bellefonte are at least commencing to see the importance of advertising in the DAILY NEWS. It is strange they have not discovered this before. An uptown merchant who was not an advertiser said the other day that he had lots of new varieties in his store but no person seemed to know it. Of course they didn't. How could they when he did not let the people know through the newspapers what he had for sale? This same merchant also thought it very strange that his next door neighbor—a man who does advertise—did lots of business, while his own store was passed by unnoticed. The discouraged merchant was about ready to give up the ghost. His business was almost at a stand-still, and he was losing money everyday. A drummer who was trying to make a sale chanced into the store one day when the merchant was feeling more down hearted than ordinary and when he tried to sell some goods he was told it was impossible to sell what was already in the store. "Do you advertise in your daily paper?" asked the drummer. "No it is too expensive" replied the merchant or I would. "Let me tell you one thing" said the drummer, "if you don't advertise in a daily paper, you can never expect to dispose of your wares; and the daily paper that charges a fair price for its advertisements is the one you want to do business with, because it takes money to display your goods in every household and a good paper could not do this without something in return for its services." The man thought over what the drummer had told him and the next day he had an advertisement in the DAILY NEWS. Every day the "ad" was changed and about a week afterwards the same drummer came back and calling at the store, he inquired "how is business?" "Couldn't be better" was the cheery reply of the merchant, "To you I owe my thanks for your good advice; and to the DAILY NEWS for doing the work."

NEW DISCOVERY.

Among the many discoveries of the present age, none rank higher than the new metal silvereen, which owing to its great durability and cheapness is bound to take the place of silver in the manufacture of fine tableware.

Silvereen is a beautiful white metal, will not tarnish or rust, and all goods made from it are warranted.

We want every one to have a chance to compare silvereen with silver, so for the next sixty days we are going to give away one half dozen Crown Silver Tea Spoons Free, to every person who will send for one of our Terry's Silvereen sets, containing six Tea Spoons, one Sugar Shell, one Butter Knife. If at any time the Silvereen goods do not prove satisfactory, return them and your money will be refunded. Remember we give you the Silver Spoons.

ISSUE OF THE CAMPAIGN.

The Republican Party Stands Pledged to Municipal Reform.

THE PLANK IN THE PLATFORM.

It Means Precisely What It Says and Is More Than an Empty Sound—Public Office Shall be for the Public Benefit in Both City and State.

The reform plank inserted in the platform by Senator Quay is going to be one of the main issues in the state campaign in Pennsylvania this year. Any one who imagines that the plank was inserted for effect only, or that it does not mean precisely what it says, will be woefully disappointed. It was prepared with great deliberation, and it makes a rallying cry around which the people of all parties can consistently and honorably gather.

It would not be surprising if thousands of Democrats voted the Republican ticket this year, solely because of this declaration of reform and political independence. They know that if reform is to be accomplished it must come through the powerful Republican organization. They know also that when Senator Quay says a thing of this kind he means it.

THE MAIN ISSUE.

His plank in this platform reads as follows:

"We decry the growing use of money in politics, and the corporate control of legislatures, municipal councils, political primaries and elections, and favor the enactment of legislation and the enforcement of laws to correct such abuses.

"We earnestly insist upon a form of civil service which will prevent the enslavement of public officers and employes, and the compelling of those appointed to preserve the peace to confine themselves to their duties; which will insure absolute freedom and fairness in bestowing state and county and municipal contracts, and will punish any form of favoritism in granting them; which will forbid the grant of exclusive franchises to deal in public necessities, comforts, conveyances and sanitary requirements; and will insure the recognition of ability and fidelity in the public service, keeping service to the country ever foremost, when accompanied by ability and fitness.

"We demand that public office shall be for public benefit, and its term in subordinate positions shall be during good behavior. No public employe or officer should be permitted to influence primaries or elections, nor upon any pretense be assessed upon his salary, and all unnecessary positions and salaries should be abolished, and expenditures and taxation reduced. There should be uniform valuation of property for public purposes, corporations enjoying public privileges should pay for them, and schools should be divorced from politics and kept absolutely free from political influence and control."

QUAY IS IN EARNEST.

The Everett Press, speaking of this, says: Some of our oversmart contemporaries pretend to make merry over the promise of Quay to aid in bringing about certain reforms. They refer to his past as a politician. Admit this, and yet if the senator is in earnest now, and he certainly is emphatic enough in his declarations, we ought to take him at his word and welcome him into the ranks of reform, and encourage him in his work. We believe Senator Quay to be in earnest in his new departure, if you choose to consider it such, and that he means every word he says. Possibly no man in the nation, certainly no man in Pennsylvania, can do so much toward bringing about the reforms promised as he. He is stronger now than ever. His experience and knowledge of politics and men will give him a power that no other man possesses, and when wielded in the interests of the people and in the cause of good government will be of incalculable good. The people of Pennsylvania have stood by him in a manner that should fill his heart with pride. We believe that he means what he says when in return for their indorsement he declares his purpose of standing up for them. Besides, whatever else may have been charged against him, his courage and truthfulness has never been questioned.

Buy American Goods.

"Many a home production is sold as 'imported' to please the fancy of those who, having no idea of the high grade and extensive manufactures of our own shores, think that the better comes from abroad."

This was the announcement made by a New York retail store situated on Fourteenth street, near Fifth avenue. This store made a specialty of a sale of American products both before and after the Fourth of July. If more retailers would draw attention to the good quality of American products, it would be a better thing for American industries and American wage earners.

The Convict Coiner.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Sept. 27.—By the aid of Warden Hoyt, of the prison South, Secret Service Detective Summers arrested Captain Henry Patton, foreman of the Patton Manufacturing company, located in the penitentiary, on the charge of circulating counterfeit money, which has for years been made in the prison by the convicts. Captain Patton confessed, and was taken to New Albany to be given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Harrington. The money was manufactured by Convict William Alsop, who is serving a ten year term for grand larceny.

Healthy, happy children are those whose mothers have been, and are, healthy. The best intentioned woman in the world will fall short of her duty to her children if she is worried and wearied with weakness and sickness. Most all irritable women are sick women. Most all melancholy, listless, languid women are sick women. Every woman who will take the trouble to notice, will find that at certain fixed periods she is nervous, cross, irritable and despondent. Any irregularity makes the conditions worse. Even a well woman is less amiable than usual at these times. What can be expected from a sick woman?

When every movement is a dreary drag, when the nerves are all on edge in sympathy with the particular ones affected—when it seems that death were very much preferable to living—what can a woman do for her children then?

It is every woman's duty to be well and healthy. There is no reason why she should be otherwise if only she will take proper care of herself and take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when she needs it.

This celebrated remedy has been used in the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y., of which Dr. Pierce is Chief Consulting Physician and specialist, for over 30 years. Thousands of women have been cured by it and hundreds have written grateful letters.

Some of these letters are embodied in a 168 page book, called "Woman and Her Diseases," which will be sent sealed in a plain envelope on receipt of ten cents (stamps), by WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

POLICY OF TRUE DEMOCRACY.

Duties on Farm Products Were Laid for Protection, Not Revenue.

In 1828 the house committe on manufactures advanced the reason for placing a duty on spirits made from grain and on molasses. It was claimed that large quantities of foreign molasss were imported and used to make molasses rum, and that this was a competitor of our homemade whisky made from domestic grown grain. But another ground on which the duties on spirits and on molasses were levied was that our grain growing farmers in the interior were then without transportation facilities and suffered for a market for their grain, and that foreign spirits and molasses rum lessened this market at the domestic distilleries. The report of the committee said:

"It is the interest, and solely the interest, of the farmer who grows the grain from which spirits are distilled which renders it a subject at all worthy the consideration of congress, as connected with the protection of the industry and substantial interests of the country"

Silas Wright, of New York, than whom there was no Democrat more able, who was a member of the committee making this report, and Mr. Benton also spoke for the increase of the duty on foreign spirits and molasses, and it carried.

There is no escape from the conclusion that duties on agricultural products were then levied for protection and not for revenue only. That was the policy of true Democracy. The "tariff for revenue only" idea is an upstart, a scheme of shysters.

UNITED FOR SUCCESS

Republicans in All Sections Now Working Together for Victory.

A meeting of the Republicans of the Fourth legislative district was held here on Saturday evening. It was well attended and the sentiment expressed show that the party in this district is still united and will make a good showing in the coming campaign. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That whatever differences there may have been as to party leadership during the past summer the Republicans of the Fourth district are now united and hope to make the Fourth legislative district give a strong Republican majority under the leadership of Matthew Stanley Quay, the party chairman.—Hazleton Sentinel.

HE IS ABOVE ANIMOSITY.

Quay Demonstrates His Ability to Rise Above Personal Feeling.

The greatest political act of Senator Quay's life was not when he demonstrated his ability to defeat one of the most powerful political combinations ever made in the state of Pennsylvania, but when he demonstrated the ability to rise above personal feelings and animosities and act solely in the interest of the Republican party of Pennsylvania. Then did Mr. Quay set an example that is worthy of study from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the largest to the smallest township.—Ogdensburg Journal.

Her Logic.

The old lady Methodist always stood up for her church. She had just heard of the appointment of an Episcopal chaplain at the penitentiatry when she exclaimed indignantly: "They ought to have a Methodist chaplain—there are more Methodist convicts in the penitentiary than any other denomination I know"—Judge.

SENATOR QUAY MAKES INQUIRY.

He Joins in the Question Raised by Lawyer Olmsted.

Harrisburg, Oct. 8.—As chairman of the Republican State committee, Senator Quay addressed to the Secretary of the Common wealth a letter under date of Oct. 5, in which he says he is advised that the provision of the Superior court law which forbids each elector to vote for more than six candidates, although there are seven judges to be elected, is in contravention of the Constitution of the State, which declares that each qualified elector shall be "entitled to vote at all the elections," and provides for limited voting for judges only in the case of those of the supreme court, and that an election of judges of the Superior court held upon the limited plan of voting would be invalid.

Senator Quay then asks the secretary of the Commonwealth: "In making up the form of the ballot, giving instructions and performing the other duties imposed upon you by the ballot law, will you, disregarding the said provision of the statute, prescribe such form of ballot and give such instructions as will insure each elector throughout the Commonwealth the righs and privilege of voting for seven candidates for judges of the Superior court if he shall so desire?"

Gen. Reeder replied to the communication of Mr. Quay, that he could not pass on the constitutional question involved and that he would therefore prepare the ballot as requised by law.

Senator Quay, on receiving the communication of Secretary Reeder, directed Mr Olmsted, who raised the constitutiona question, to make application to Attorney General McCormick for such action in the name of the Commonwealth as would result in the speedy judicial determination of the matter. After a hearing the Attorney General allowed the application, and proceedings by mandamus on the Secretary of the Commonwealth will be commenced forthwith.

The Attorney General said after his decision that the proceeding in this form is the only method by which the question can be judicially determined prior to the time the elector offers to vote. The Attorney General has associated Mr. Olmsted with him in the case, and has requested him to conduct the proceedings.

J. A. Stranahan, late chairman of the Democratic State committee, and Deputy Attorney General under the Pattison administration, has been retained by the Secretary of the Commonwealth as his council. Both sides will do all in their power to get an opinion from the Supreme court before October 22, the latest date on which the official ballot can be sent from the Department.

Death of Mrs. Annie Toot.

At 9 o'clock Monday evening Mrs. Annie Toot died at her home on Reynolds avenue. She was 80 years old at the time of her death and was one of the best known residents in that neighborhood. She was the mother of Mrs. J. A. Miller, Thomas Tutt, John Tutt of Clearfield, and Miss Walters who has been making her home in Bellefonte for some time. The time for the funeral has not yet been decided upon.

Dance Monday Evening.

A very pretty dance was given in the Bush Arcade on Monday evening which was attended by many of the young folks. The music was furnished by the Italians and was very good. Everybody seemed to have a fine time and taking it altogether it was one of the finest little dances given for some time.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness, caused by catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Sunday School Convention.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 8.—The 31st annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association opened here this evening under very favorable auspices. About 200 delegates have arrived, and it is expected that to-morrow over 300 will be in attendance. The preliminary meeting this evening was presided over by Rev. Alexander Henry, D. D., of Philadelphia in the absence of Rev. James Morrow, D D. An address of welcome was made by T. M. Hicks, of this city, and the response was by John Wanamaker. B. F. Jacobs, of Chicago, chairman of the Executive committee. International Sunday School association delivered an address on the work in other States. He was followed by Mr. Wanamaker, the president, who delivered his annual address. An overflow meeting, conducted by A. L. Allen, of Philadelphia, was held in the basement. Mr. Allen, J. F. Horney, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Wanamaker addressed the gathering.

Death of Gen. Mahone.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8.—General Mahone died at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The end came peacefully and almost imperceptibly. The dying man had lain unconscious ever since last Sunday morning, taking no nourishment and showing no sign of life beyond faint respiration.

The doctors said yesterday that death was surely approaching, and at 10 o'clock this morning they told the family that death would come within two hours, although it proved that the vital spark lasted an hour beyond that period.

All the members of the family were about the bedside when the end came, including Mrs. Mahone, the two sons, Butler and William Mahone, Jr.; Mrs. McGill, a daughter; Mr. L. Maury, of Virginia, a nephew, and Captain Rogers, an old friend of the general and present chairman of the Virginia Republican Committee. The watchers had been at the bedside continuously for many hours, and were prepared.

Argument Court.

Argument court commenced on its second week. Associate Judge Benjamin Rich was unable to attend as he is confined to his bed with sickness. No cases of particular interest were tried to-day.

THE PARTY PLATFORM.

Full Text of the Principles on Which the Fight Is to be Made.

DECLARATION FOR SOUND MONEY.

Continued Adherence to the Policy of Protection.

PRINCIPAL REFORM DEMANDED.

A Complete Document That Should Be Carefully Studied by Every Intelligent Voter in the State of Pennsylvania. Public Office Must Be for the Public Service in Both the Cities and the State—Corporation Influence in Politics Denounced.

Inquiries have been received from all parts of the state for the platform upon which the Republican campaign is being waged in Pennsylvania this fall. The platform sent from Harrisburg went out piecemeal. The following is the complete text of the document:

The Republican party of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, makes the following declaration of principles:

1. We accept unreservedly the doctrine enunciated by the Republican national convention in 1892, namely, that the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal.

2. Faithful to the Republican party, and believing it to be the settled doctrine of the party that the honor of the nation and the interests of its citizens require the maintenance of a national currency, every dollar of which, whether in gold, silver or notes, shall be of stable value and of equal purchasing power, we hereby declare our opposition to the debasement of the national currency by the admission of silver to free and unlimited coinage at the arbitrary ratio of 16 to 1.

3. We declare our continued adherence to the protective policy, which has been so sturdily championed for a hundred years by the great men of our state and of the nation, and to the acceptance of which policy by the Republican party the country owes all the prosperity it has enjoyed during the last thirty-five years. We insist upon the passage of such legislation as will secure the restoration and maintenance of this policy without qualification or abatement.

4. We charge the Democratic party, under Mr. Cleveland's leadership, with the precipitation upon the country in the early part of 1893 of the most disastrous industrial and financial panic in our history, which was caused by the open threat of Mr. Cleveland to destroy the protective policy, and by the fear that other radical and destructive legislative changes would be attempted under the same leadership. The country has had an object lesson in destructive statesmanship which it will not soon forget.

5. We rejoice that the scheme of President Cleveland and other free trade leaders to inflict upon the country the infamous Wilson tariff bill, as passed by the house of representatives, was defeated in the United States senate. One year ago a tariff bill which embodies substantial although not complete concessions to the protective policy became a law without the president's signature. Such measure of prosperity as the country enjoys today is due to the radical changes made by the United States senate in the Wilson bill, and to the subsequent election of a new congress pledged to resist the Cleveland free trade policy.

6. We thank the Republican members of the house of representatives from Pennsylvania for their activity in exposing the destructive character of the Wilson tariff bill as passed by the house of representatives, and we thank the Republican senators from Pennsylvania for their efficient help in securing its defeat. Especially do we thank Senator Matthew Stanley Quay for his heroic resistance to the bill throughout many weary months, leading the Republican opposition to its enactment, and finally compelling the Democratic majority in the senate to agree to the substitution of many protective duties for its free trade provisions.

7. We charge upon the Democratic party the present condition of the federal treasury, which presents a constantly growing deficit in receipts as compared with expenditures, compelling the borrowing of money in large amounts at exorbitant premiums in time of peace to maintain the credit of the government. For two years the Democratic party has had complete control of the executive and legislative branches of the national government, yet it has utterly failed to provide sufficient revenue to meet the ordinary wants of the government. For this failure its responsibility is absolute. It has exhibited to the world such inability and faithlessness in the discharge of the high trust committed to its care that its history continues to excite the contempt and distrust of all thoughtful citizens.

8. We favor the adoption of a fixed and well considered policy for the permanent betterment of the highways of the state, so that the means of communication by private conveyance between the farms of the state and the neighboring markets shall be improved and encouragement be given to the enlarged use of these highways by our citizens.

9. We continue to demand the enactment of such legislation as will prevent the immigration of paupers, criminals and persons incapable, either physically or mentally, of self support, and we indorse the bill that passed the house of representatives, prepared and introduced by our distinguished congressman, Hon. William A. Stone.

10. We decry the growing use of money in politics, and the corporate control of legislatures, municipal councils, political primaries and elections, and favor the enactment of legislation and the enforcement of laws to correct such abuses.

11. We earnestly insist upon a form of civil service which will prevent the enslavement of public officers and employes and the compelling of those appointed to preserve the peace to confine themselves to their duties; which will insure absolute freedom and fairness in bestowing state and county and municipal contracts, and will punish any form of favoritism in granting them; which will forbid the grant of exclusive franchises to deal in public necessities, comforts, conveyances and sanitary requirements; and will insure the recognition of ability and fidelity in the public service, keeping service to the country ever foremost, when accompanied by ability and fitness.

12. We demand that public office shall be for public benefit, and its term in subordinate positions shall be during good behavior. No public employe or officer should be permitted to influence primaries or elections, nor upon any pretense be assessed upon his salary, and all unnecessary positions and salaries should be abolished and expenditures and taxation reduced. There should be uniform valuation of property for public purposes, corporations enjoying public privileges should pay for them, and schools should be divorced from politics and kept absolutely free from political influence and control.

13. The commercial, maritime and ship building interests of Pennsylvania should be cared for by the state as a whole. The interests of the city of Philadelphia and the state of Pennsylvania are identical, and both demand the immediate improvement of the state's great highway to the sea, the Delaware river, by the removal of existing obstructions to our ocean trade, and development of our commercial possibilities. The advantages which are sure to accrue to the whole commonwealth justify the state in supplementing, by a liberal appropriation, those already made by the city of Philadelphia and the general government toward improving the Delaware river between Philadelphia and the sea. Like considerations would justify the state in making an appropriation for improvement of navigation of the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio rivers.

14. We commend the splendid administration of Governor Daniel H. Hastings, which has fully justified the confidence in him of the voters of the commonwealth as expressed in the enormous majority given him last fall.

IRON'S UPS AND DOWNS.

Infallible Proof of the Workings of Free Trade and Protection.

Ryland's Iron Trade Circular gives the pig iron production of the world during the past thirteen years. It shows more clearly than anything else the direct effect that protection had upon the production of pig iron in the United States; also what the fear of free trade did in lowering our production. The table further shows how the policy of protection to pig iron in the United States was detrimental to the output in Great Britain, and again, directly the fear of free trade decreased our output, the same reason acted as a stimulus upon the product of the English mines. The statistics are as follows:

	—Tons of 2,240 lbs— Great Britain.	United States.
1882	8,586,000	4,623,000
1883	8,459,000	4,595,000
1884	7,811,000	4,097,000
1885	7,415,000	4,044,000
1886	7,009,000	5,683,000
1887	7,559,000	6,417,000
1888	7,998,000	6,489,000
1889	8,322,000	7,603,000
1890	7,875,000	9,202,000
1891	7,228,000	8,279,000
1892	6,616,000	9,157,000
1893	6,829,000	7,124,000
1894	7,364,000	6,657,000

During the years 1890-2 the American output of pig iron averaged 8,900,000 tons a year. During 1893 and 1894 it averaged only 6,850,000 tons a year. The output of the English iron mines, which had reached 8,322,000 tons in 1889, averaged only 7,230,000 tons during the following three years, 1890-2, when our output was the largest under protection. Again in 1893 and 1894 their output increased just as ours gradually decreased when the threat of free pig iron nearly ruined our industry. The hired English organs here are not honest enough to make this exhibit in connection with their claims for free pig iron.

NO SURPLUS NOW.

A Condition and Not a Theory Confronts Us at Present.

During the first administration of President Cleveland the great evil complained about was the large surplus in the treasury. The national debt was being paid off rapidly, and the surplus in the treasury was accumulating. The president seemed to think that a surplus of money in the treasury was the greatest of evils, and appealed to congress to take measures for its reduction. Now the surplus under the second term of Cleveland has been reduced so rapidly that he had to issue bonds and buy gold to keep the surplus up to the requirements of the law. It was on the former occasion that the president gave forth the memorable words, "A condition and not a theory confronts us." It may be assumed as a fact that the president believes that at the present time also "A condition and not a theory confronts us," and feels that the situation is as serious now as it was then, for it is easier to get rid of more money than you need than it is to raise the wind when you are broke. During Cleveland's second term is the only period since the war that the government has had to borrow money to pay current expenses. It's a bad job. The Republicans will remedy the evil when they get into power.

Hip Disease
Results from a scrofulous and impure condition of the blood, and it is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla the great blood purifier. The father of a Philadelphia girl writes this:

"We gave Hood's Sarsaparilla to our little girl, who had symptoms of hip disease. She could not put her foot down on the floor when we commenced giving her the medicine, but in a short time she was able to get off the couch and to reach her playthings. Since then she has steadily improved, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and her general health is all that could be desired. When any of the other children are not well we give them and we earnestly recommend it to others." E. BERRY, 203 Richmond St., Philadelphia.
Hood's Sarsaparilla

DEFENSE SHOWS UP POORLY.

Rev. John Gibson Yesterday's Leading Witness.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—The Durrant case promised two sensational features today, but neither developed. Carrie Cunningham, a "Chronicle" reporter, was up for contempt in refusing to give the source of her information that Mrs. Leak saw Durrant and Blanche Lamont enter the church on the fatal afternoon, and that she was the last person who saw Blanche alive. Mrs. Leak denied on the witness that she had talked with the reporter, and Miss Cunningham admitted she had not gotten her story from Mrs. Leak so the judge to-day held that her answer was not material, and he refused to commit her to jail. He named Tuesday to listen to argument on the question.

The other expected sensation was the testimony of Preacher Gibson, of Emanuel church, who the defense have accused of complicity in the murder of Blanche Lamont. Mr. Gibson, contrary to expectations showed none of his usual nervousness when on the stand. He was asked by both sides to write his name, and also to write in printed letters what was on the newspaper package that inclosed Blanche Lamont's rings. The defense particularly desired to get what was printed on this package in the handwriting of the preacher, and much against his will the judge ordered him to print the words. The manuscript of the Rev. Mr. Gibson's sermons was introduced. The resemblance between the chirography of the minister and that on the paper of the package was strong.

The defense placed much emphasis on this feature of its case. The prosecution says it will show that the similarity was due to the murderer having imitated Gibson's writing. The defense made no secret of the fact that they regard the preacher guilty.

The defense introduced testimony to show Durant's good character, but most of the witnesses had only knowledge of him as it appeared at church or in business houses, where he had worked in vacation.

The case then went over until Tuesday.

Prison Made Goods.

In the house of parliament Colonel Howard Vincent moved, on Feb. 19, 1895:

"That in the opinion of this house it is incumbent upon her majesty's government, in the interest of the industrial classes of the United Kingdom, at once to take steps to restrict importation of goods made in foreign prisons by the forced labor of convicts and felons."

After a long and interesting debate a division was at first vigorously challenged from the government side, but was not persisted in, the motion being unanimously adopted amid opposition cheers.

Heaven Help National Affairs.

On the first of July last the increase of the national debt since the advent of the Cleveland administration amounted to $285,000,000. Yesterday it had attained the enormous sum of $301,000,000!

That was in about eleven weeks. Day by day it is mounting higher, under the suicidal policy inaugurated by the revenue destroying Democracy.

If this is what the Democrats mean by reforming the administration of national affairs, heaven help our national affairs!

Out of Their Reckoning.

The fiscal year 1895, which ended on July 1, was a bad one for export trade because of the enormous deficiency of the corn crop and the consequent reduction of meat products.—New York World.

Yet we exported 7,500,000 pounds more canned beef than in 1894; over 34,740,000 pounds more bacon; over 18,000,000 pounds more ham and over 28,600,000 pounds more lard. Guess again, Ananias.

Free Eggs, Not Fresh Eggs.

Free eggs are of great assistance to the British farmers. The imports of eggs into the United Kingdom during 1894 were worth $18,426,118. With a protective tariff upon eggs most of this money would have been retained in the British isles instead of being sent to France, Germany, Belgium, Denmark and Russia.

Relief In Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder disease relieved in six hours by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your

PROTECTION IN ENGLAND.

Home Industries Favored in the United Kingdom.

The manufacturers of matches in the United Kingdom appeal to their customers to buy only English matches by placing a little printed slip inside the cover of the box, asking the people to "patronize home industry, use English matches and employ British labor." Large signs bearing the same views can now be seen throughout the country districts of England. This is exactly what Republicans urge—namely, that the American people should patronize American home industries, use American made goods and employ American labor. The English and American manufacturers thus have precisely the same ideas.

Following the plan of the English match manufacturers we find in another line of goods the following announcement on the outside of a cover of a package of British goods:

IMPORTANT!
Why Support the manufacture of Other Countries When You Can Obtain as Good an Article
MADE BY HOME INDUSTRY?

This is the appeal made by a London and Nottingham cigarette manufacturing concern which finds that its offer to give a "tube to each cigarette, matches and photo in each package" is not sufficient to secure all the trade it desires. Possibly the English dudes prefer American made cigarettes, and do not find that they "can obtain as good an article made by home industry" in England. The belief in a policy of protection, however, is taking very generally throughout the United Kingdom.

MORE DEMOCRATIC FAKES.

Preposterous Theories Advanced by the Free Trade Press.

A Pittsburg dispatch says:

"The wages of 50,000 men who work in the union iron mills of America for September and October have been fixed by representatives of the Merchants' Bar Iron association and the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers. The settlement gives all employes in the finishing department an advance of 2 per cent. The rate for puddling is put at $4.25, the present rate, under the adjustment. At the next bimonthly settlement wages of all the puddlers and finishers will go up at least 2 per cent. more. The raise is only 2 per cent. because many low priced contracts were filled during July and August."

If the Wilson tariff bill had nothing to do with this raise in wages, will some calamity howler tell us what had?—Doylestown Democrat.

This dispatch came from the same source that the dispatch did the other day, announcing that the Carnegie Steel company had received orders for 1,000,000 tons of structural work. This was a Democratic fake, for all the steel plants in this country don't turn out that much steel in a year. Even admitting the dispatch to be true, the wages of the 50,000 are still from 15 to 25 per cent. lower than under the McKinley tariff law. If the Democrat has no better story than the above to tell, it had better remain silent, for no sane person will believe such stuff and nonsense. The prospect of a near Republican administration is having a wholesome effect on business and not the Wilson tariff bill, as the Democrat seems to think, and tries to make others believe.—Phœnixville Republican.

A Bellefonter at Sea.

Mr. W. H. Musser received a letter from his son C. Dale Musser, who is on the School Ship Saratoga at Maderia, an island belonging to the kingdom of Spain. He says they will leave there at once and will arrive at Philadelphia in thirty days from the time they leave Maderia, or about Oct, 20th. He gives some glowing accounts of his travels. He has seen the flags of fourteen different nations in his ourney and has been on board of some of the largest war ships that float. He spent five days on the island of Maderia. After the ship arrives in Philadelphia every boy will be given 15 days leave of absence and Dale then expects to come ome.

Diphtheria
Less Fatal.
If the patient's strength can be maintained, and the great vital centres of the body "kept up" to the performance of their natural functions, they will thus dispel the disease germs that impregnate the entire body, and if sufficient vitality is experienced, the fatality of this dreaded disease is lessened a hundred-fold.

Bovinine
that greatest raw food, is a wonderful creator of new flesh and nerve tissue, is indispensible in the treatment of this malady, as it gives strength to the patient with the least effort on the part of the digestive organs, and in addition, being itself a germicide, it antidotes the existing microbes of the disease. The ease with which it can be taken when the lesions of the throat preclude the use of other foods, makes it an additional necessity for the sufferer's recovery.

ISSUE OF THE CAMPAIGN.

The Republican Party Stands Pledged to Municipal Reform.

THE PLANK IN THE PLATFORM.

It Means Precisely What It Says and Is More Than an Empty Sound—Public Office Shall be for the Public Benefit in Both City and State.

The reform plank inserted in the platform by Senator Quay is going to be one of the main issues in the state campaign in Pennsylvania this year. Any one who imagines that the plank was inserted for effect only, or that it does not mean precisely what it says, will be woefully disappointed. It was prepared with great deliberation, and it makes a rallying cry around which the people of all parties can consistently and honorably gather.

It would not be surprising if thousands of Democrats voted the Republican ticket this year, solely because of this declaration of reform and political independence. They know that if reform is to be accomplished it must come through the powerful Republican organization. They know also that when Senator Quay says a thing of this kind he means it.

THE MAIN ISSUE.

His plank in this platform reads as follows:

"We decry the growing use of money in politics, and the corporate control of legislatures, municipal councils, political primaries and elections, and favor the enactment of legislation and the enforcement of laws to correct such abuses.

"We earnestly insist upon a form of civil service which will prevent the enslavement of public officers and employes, and the compelling of those appointed to preserve the peace to confine themselves to their duties; which will insure absolute freedom and fairness in bestowing state and county and municipal contracts, and will punish any form of favoritism in granting them; which will forbid the grant of exclusive franchises to deal in public necessities, comforts, conveyances and sanitary requirements; and will insure the recognition of ability and fidelity in the public service, keeping service to the country ever foremost, when accompanied by ability and fitness.

"We demand that public office shall be for public benefit, and its term in subordinate positions shall be during good behavior. No public employe or officer should be permitted to influence primaries or elections, nor upon any pretense be assessed upon his salary, and all unnecessary positions and salaries should be abolished, and expenditures and taxation reduced. There should be uniform valuation of property for public purposes, corporations enjoying public privileges should pay for them, and schools should be divorced from politics and kept absolutely free from political influence and control."

QUAY IS IN EARNEST.

The Everett Press, speaking of this, says: Some of our oversmart contemporaries pretend to make merry over the promise of Quay to aid in bringing about certain reforms. They refer to his past as a politician. Admit this, and yet if the senator is in earnest now, and he certainly is emphatic enough in his declarations, we ought to take him at his word and welcome him into the ranks of reform, and encourage him in his work. We believe Senator Quay to be in earnest in his new departure, if you choose to consider it such, and that he means every word he says. Possibly no man in the nation, certainly no man in Pennsylvania, can do so much toward bringing about the reforms promised as he. He is stronger now than ever. His experience and knowledge of politics and men will give him a power that no other man possesses, and when wielded in the interests of the people and in the cause of good government will be of incalculable good. The people of Pennsylvania have stood by him in a manner that should fill his heart with pride. We believe that he means what he says when in return for their indorsement he declares his purpose of standing up for them. Besides, whatever else may have been charged against him, his courage and truthfulness has never been questioned.

Buy American Goods.

"Many a home production is sold as 'imported' to please the fancy of those who, having no idea of the high grade and extensive manufactures of our own shores, think that the better comes from abroad."

This was the announcement made by a New York retail store situated on Fourteenth street, near Fifth avenue. This store made a specialty of a sale of American products both before and after the Fourth of July. If more retailers would draw attention to the good quality of American products, it would be a better thing for American industries and American wage earners.

The Convict Coiner.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Sept. 27.—By the aid of Warden Hoyt, of the prison South, Secret Service Detective Summers arrested Captain Henry Patton, foreman of the Patton Manufacturing company, located in the penitentiary, on the charge of circulating counterfeit money, which has for years been made in the prison by the convicts. Captain Patton confessed, and was taken to New Albany to be given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Harrington. The money was manufactured by Convict William Alsop, who is serving a ten year term for grand larceny.

POLICY OF TRUE DEMOCRACY.

Duties on Farm Products Were Laid for Protection, Not Revenue.

In 1828 the house committe on manufactures advanced the reason for placing a duty on spirits made from grain and on molasses. It was claimed that large quantities of foreign molasses were imported and used to make molasses rum, and that this was a competitor of our homemade whisky made from domestic grown grain. But another ground on which the duties on spirits and on molasses were levied was that our grain growing farmers in the interior were then without transportation facilities and suffered for a market for their grain, and that foreign spirits and molasses rum lessened this market at the domestic distilleries. The report of the committee said:

"It is the interest, and solely the interest, of the farmer who grows the grain from which spirits are distilled which renders it a subject at all worthy the consideration of congress, as connected with the protection of the industry and substantial interests of the country."

Silas Wright, of New York, than whom there was no Democrat more able, who was a member of the committee making this report, and Mr. Benton also, spoke for the increase of the duty on foreign spirits and molasses, and it carried.

There is no escape from the conclusion that duties on agricultural products were then levied for protection and not for revenue only. That was the policy of true Democracy. The "tariff for revenue only" idea is an upstart, a scheme of shysters.

UNITED FOR SUCCESS.

Republicans in All Sections Now Working Together for Victory.

A meeting of the Republicans of the Fourth legislative district was held here on Saturday evening. It was well attended and the sentiment expressed shows that the party in this district is still united and will make a good showing in the coming campaign. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That whatever differences there may have been as to party leadership during the past summer the Republicans of the Fourth district are now united and hope to make the Fourth legislative district give a strong Republican majority under the leadership of Matthew Stanley Quay, the party chairman.—Hazleton Sentinel.

HE IS ABOVE ANIMOSITY.

Quay Demonstrates His Ability to Rise Above Personal Feeling.

The greatest political act of Senator Quay's life was not when he demonstrated his ability to defeat one of the most powerful political combinations ever made in the state of Pennsylvania, but when he demonstrated the ability to rise above personal feelings and animosities and act solely in the interest of the Republican party of Pennsylvania. Then did Mr. Quay set an example that is worthy of study from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the largest to the smallest township.—Ogdensburg Journal.

Prison Made Goods.

In the house of parliament Colonel Howard Vincent moved, on Feb. 19, 1895:

"That in the opinion of this house it is incumbent upon her majesty's government, in the interest of the industrial classes of the United Kingdom, at once to take steps to restrict importation of goods made in foreign prisons by the forced labor of convicts and felons."

After a long and interesting debate a division was at first vigorously challenged from the government side, but was not persisted in, the motion being unanimously adopted amid opposition cheers.

Heaven Help National Affairs.

On the first of July last the increase of the national debt since the advent of the Cleveland administration amounted to $285,000,000. Yesterday it had attained the enormous sum of $801,000,000!

That was in about eleven weeks. Day by day it is mounting higher, under the suicidal policy inaugurated by the revenue destroying Democracy.

If this is what the Democrats mean by reforming the administration of national affairs, heaven help our national affairs!

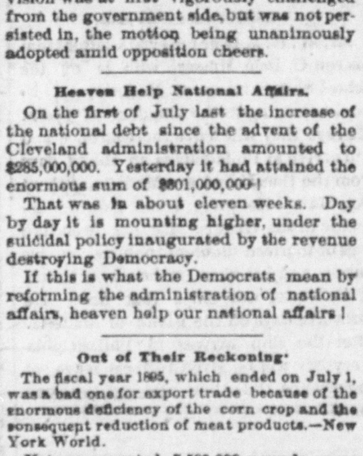
Out of Their Reckoning.

The fiscal year 1895, which ended on July 1, was a bad one for export trade because of the enormous deficiency of the corn crop and the consequent reduction of meat products.—New York World.

Yet we exported 7,300,000 pounds more canned beef than in 1894; over 34,740,000 pounds more bacon; over 18,000,000 pounds more ham and over 23,600,000 pounds more lard. Guess again, Ananias.

Free Eggs, Not Fresh Eggs.

Free eggs are of great assistance to the British farmers. The imports of eggs into the United Kingdom during 1894 were worth $18,426,118. With a protective tariff upon eggs most of this money would have been retained in the British isles instead of being sent to France, Germany, Belgium, Denmark and Russia.



CHARLES E. RICE.

Wedded at Potters Mills.

A very pretty wedding was solemized a Potters Mills on Wednesday evening by which Rev. A. D. Potts, of Pleasant Unity, Westmoreland county was married to Miss Agnes McCoy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilson of Potters Mills assisted by Rev. A. L. Youn of Greensburg, and was witnessed by many friends of both bride and groom Miss McCoy is one of Potters Mills' most popular young ladies, and Rev. Potts is a young mintster who has already made a name for himself in the western part of the state.

WILLIAMS NAMED FOR GOVERNOR.

was Nominated on Tuesday by the Democrats of Massachusetts.

Worchester, Mass., Oct. 2.—The Democratic state convention was held here today. The following ticket was nominated: Gov. G. F. Williams, of Dedhamf lieutenant governor, James S. Grinnell, o Greenfield, for secretary of state, E. J. Flinn, of Boston; treasury, E. S. Stevens, of Sudbury; auditor, A. C. Whitney, of Boston; attorney general H. F. Hurlbut of Lynn.

The platform congratulates the manufacturing interests of Massachusetts on the successful operation of the present tariff; denounces the efforts of the Republican party to reopen the tariff question for the purpose of restoring the abominations of the McKinley act; demands the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value and that the government shall keep all its obligations at all times redeemable in gold opposes the free coinage of silver and any further purchases of silver bullion on the government's account; reaffirms the demands of the platform of last year that the government shall not carry on a banking system adequate to the demands of trade; retire as rapidly as possible all United States paper money; tenders to President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle the thanks of the Democratic party of Massachusetts for their patriotic efforts to protect the public credit under the adverse condition brought about by the Republican misrule, and congratulates the country on the marked revival of business confidences and prosperity which has followed their action.

On religious toleration, the platform says: Religious differences should find no place in American politics and the Democratic party is unalterably opposed to the spirit of intolerant bigotry fostered for political purposes by those who seek to spread discord and adimosities among the citizens of the republic. Secret political bodies are a curse to party, state and nation. we denounce the so-called American Protective association, its purposes, its methods and its allies. We welcome the assistance of all good citizens who will co-operate in the suppression of any political movement organized for religious proscription.

Knights of the Red Shirt.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 2.—The State Firemen's association, by a vote of 218 to 63, chose Johnstown in preference to Scranton for the next year's meeting place today, after electing the following officers: President, Irvin A. Hahne of Lock Haven; vice president, John E. Spears of Reading, John Steele of Pittsburg, F. E. Lewis of Allentown, W. Harper of Philadelphia; recording secretary, W. W. Vander of Reading; corresponding secretary, J. A. Green of Carlisle; treasurer, J. Slingluff of Norristown. Nearly the entire day's session was taken up with these elections, and when they were concluded the convention adjourned until 1896. Resolutions were adopted thanking Gov. Hastings for his approval of the firemen's pension bill, and James Clarency of Philadelphia, the author of the measure, was presented with a gold-headed cane for his services by Gilbert Greenburg of Bunting don. Hundreds of volunteer firemen are arriving with every train for to-morrow's parade, and to-night the city is in possession of the knights of the red shirt. To-morrow's demonstration promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen in this state. It is estimated that over 15,000 uniformed firemen will be in line.

Peary in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Lieutenant Peary of Arctic fame, was here to-day having reached Philadelphia late last night. He looked hale and hearty with his face reddened by out of door exposure, and resembles an athlete in training more than a man who had suffered hardships in the polar regions. He spent the night at the Colonade hotel and left this afternoon for Washington.

A Big Improvement.

Thursday the yard about the P. R. R. passenger station was covered with crushed limestone which adds greatly to the appearance of the whole surroundings. The white limestone shows up well alongside the dark red brick walks.

The Drill to Start on Monday.

The derrick and other machinery for drilling the second well of the Salt Lick gas and oil company is being erected this week, and it is expected that everything will be in readiness for starting the drill on Monday. The remaining shares of stock are being taken very fast now.

A Good Lecture.

Thursday evening a fair sized crowd of people assembled in the Methodist church to hear Dr. Berry lecture on "Ireland and the Irish." It was a very interesting well as intructive lecture and much enjoyed by those who were there.

Matilda Enham, Columbia, Pa., says:

"That Bearing-Down Feeling and dizzy, faint, gasping attacks left me as soon as I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick with womb troubles so long I thought I never could get well."

In Memoriam.

Died on Tuesday Oct. 1st 1895 at her residence in Germantown, Pa. Mrs. Mary Valentine wife of Evan M. Valentine Esq. a native of Bellefonte. Mr. Valentine is a brother of our esteemed townsman H. C Valentine, and was for many years one of our most respected and useful citizens. Mrs. Valentine was long a resident of this place and was universally esteemed. A large circle of friends will feel her loss deeply, and will sincerely sympathize with the bereaved husband and family. Mrs. Valentine leaves two sons Harry and Abram aged respctively twenty and twenty three years. The funeral will be a three o'clock to-day in Germantown.

A Catholic Grievance.

Washington, Oct. 2.—It is reported here that the Catholic archbishops in secret session will discuss the expediency and propriety of arranging Secretary Hoke Smith, of the interior department, upon the complaint of Mgr. Stephan, head of the Catholic Indian missions in this city, for unjust discrimination in the administraion of Indian affairs.

The particular grievance is the alleged maltratment of over 800 Nex Perces whom the monsighor claims, have been deprived of their allotments solely because they were Catholics and members of one of the bureau missions.

An appeal for a Congressional investigation may be the result.

A Bad Accident.

Wednesday afternoon the school children were playing as usual about the Brick school house on East Bishop street, when Wardie Willard, a former carrier of the DAILY NEWS, was accidentally pushed into the gutter by one of his playmates. In falling, Wardie struck his leg against a piece of ragged glass and cut his knee almost to the bone. The wound was almost four inches in length and caused the unfortunate little boy much pain. Several stitches were necessary to stop the flow of blood. At last accounts the little boy was resting easy and it is thought with proper care the wound will soon heal.

He Feels the Result.

While out at rifle practice on Friday, Frank Koch, ex-turn-key at the jail, found out that the gun he was shooting with was a good "kicker." He says that the old blunderbuss "knocked" him down and then kicked him several times while he was lying on the ground. Poor boy, he will soon find out that children must keep away from powder.

Keep the Cows Off the Streets.

The high constable of Bellefonte should enforce the law in keeping the cows off the streets. A cow has been running about East Linn street for several days and has already done considerable damage to the gardens and lawns on that street. Then again it is not the prettiest ornament the street could have.

Went Away to Get Married.

Wednesday morning E. Iryin Walker, of Marsh Creek, left for Mifflin county where he intends to take unto himself a blushing bride. He expects to return Friday and at that time congratulations will be in order. We wish him a happy and prosperous married life.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pains across the forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh; and should (immediately resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure. The remedy will give instant relief.

Why Not Bellefonte?

The Board of Trade of Sunbury is negotiating with the Messrs. Atwood, of Connecticut for a silk mill. The mill will employ 150 hands.

Trimming the Trees.

Col. Pruner is having the trees trimmed in front of the Eagle building which adds greatly to the appearance of the street. If this example were followed by other property owners around town, Bellefonte would be more attractive than ever before.

Made Presidential Officers.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—The following fourth class postoffices became presidential to-day: Pennsylvania, Livonia North Wales, Richland Centre; Ohio, Oak Harbor, West Virginia, Montgomery.

CENTRE COUNTY HIGHLY HONORED.

Governor Hastings Appoints Two Centre Countians on Saturday

Centre county was greatly favored yesterday in the appointments made by Gov. D. H. Hastings at Harrisburg. The one appointment was that of Professor John Hamilton, of State College, deputy secretary of agriculture. The appointment goes into the effect at once. Professor Hamilton was for many years professor of agriculture at the Pennsylvania state college and is now treasurer of the institution. He was one of the original members of the state board of agriculture. He has a splendid soldier record and is one of the most active workers in the Presbyterian church in Central Pennsylvania. He is serving as supervisor of roads in the township in which he lives. Professor Hamilton was born in 1843 in Juniata county near Thompsontown and is a relative of A Boyd Hamilton, of this city.

The appointment of Professor Hamilton will be a great surprise to the many applicants for the place. There is scarcely a county in the state where there were not less than a dozen active aspirants and all seemed to be confident of appointment. Probably the most disappointed of the lot will be G. G. Hutchinson, of Huntingdon, ex-sergeant-of-arms of the senate. Hutchinson worked faithfully for the combine in Huntingdon county during the state chairmanship contest and expected the appointment as a reward for his services. The office pays $3,000 a year and is a sine cure. The duties consist chiefly of conducting farmers' institutes under the direction of the department.

The other appointment was that of President of Pennsylvania State College, G. W. Atherton, a member of the College University council to incoporate the institutions of learning with power to confer degress. Both appointments were given to men who are fitted to justly discharge the duties that will come before them. In making the appointments Gov. Hastings used good judgment in his selections and it is a great honor conferred upon Centre county.

Purchased a Fine Team.

At the public sale at the residence of the late Dr. Dartt, William Larimer bought a fine team of horses together with a carriage. It is a sporty turnout and will add greatly to Mr. Larimer's business.

A Noted Lecturer.

A lecture entitled "Picturesque America," will be delivered on Oct. 31, by G. G. Burnett for the benefit of the Lutheran church. Mr. Burnett at his last lecture in Bellefonte made such a decided success that a good audience at his coming lecture is lready assured.

Taking His Place.

Owing to the slight illness of mail carrier John Bair, the south ward route was delivered on Wednesday and Thursday by substitute Charles Wetzel. The new carrier delivered the sealed missives as if he had been used to it all his life.

MALARIAL POISON

Results from atmospheric conditions, unclean premises, imperfect ventilation and more frequently from the deadly SEWER GAS. A general rundown and impoverished condition of the blood ensues, and if not corrected, Catarrh, Bronchitis, and even Consumption may be the result. S. S. S. promptly corrects all these evil effects.

A Good Sign.

Every day the DAILY DEWS is getting new subscribers and new advertising. The people of Bellefonte are quick to note a good thing and sure to push it along. During the last week many new subscribers have been added to our list, and every day new names come pouring in. The reason for this is because the NEWS endeavors to print all the local and general news of interest and it is only human nature that when John Smith builds a new fence, he wants to read about it in the paper. So it is with the Bellefonte people. We publish everything available concerning our own citizens and then everybody wants to read it. It is natural that they should. It is strange you shouldn't. Why don't you? You ought to. Let us send you the NEWS, it is only 10 cents a week, or 1 dollar for three months. No person in Bellefonte should go to bed without a DAILY NEWS in the bed-room because if he should be bothered by robbers, he could calmly go to sleep knowing that the intruders would upon entering the room, immediately pick up the NEWS and would soon become absorbed with the contents that it would be daylight before he would be half through reading it. When you would finally get awake you would find the only thing that was stolen was that which is the most valuable piece of furniture any household could possess—the DAILY NEWS. Try it for a week and be convinced like thousands of others have already done.

FIREMEN IN SESSION.

Sixteenth Annual Convention of the State Associatign Assembled

Reading, Pa., Oct. 1.—The sixteenth annual session of the State Firemen's association convened at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Grand opera house. The stage and auditorium was magnificently festooned, almost every seat being occupiod. When President Brooks called the convention was formally opened with prayer by Rev. W. Y. Chapman, of Olivet Presbyterian church, who delivered an eloquent petition for Divine guidance through the sessions of the convention.

Scranton and Johnstown are competitors for the next convention. Governor Hastings who was expected to be here, telegraphed that other business will prevent his attendance.

Secretary Winder's report showed that he receieved as dues for delegates at the Norristown convention last year $821.79, and that orders amounting to $116.47 were drawn upon the treasurer for expenses During the year there were twenty-five new companies, that joined the association and nine companies that were reinstated.

These nominations were made late this afternoon: President, G. T. Thompson of Landsdale; J. T. Garman, of Philadelphia I. H. Hahne, Lock Haven; G. W. Gray, of Plymouth. Vice President W. Harper Philadelphia; F. Lewis, Allentown; J. E. Spears, Reading; J. Stole, Pittsburg; G. A St. John, Wilkesbarre; Alex. Smith, Houtzdale: J. Ruggles, Royersford. A Greensburg Sensation.

Greensburg, Pa., Oct. 2.—A sensatian was created in the common pleas court here this afternoon by W. S. Byers, a prominent attorney at the bar, being directly charged in open court by Attorney G. S. Rumbaugh, with accepting a bribe in the settlement of a case. Byers was attorney for the plaintiff in the case of Mc Coy vs. Brunet, to open a judgment. An auditor was appointed and he found for the defendant. McCoy then dropped Byers and retained Lawyer Rnmbaugh. When the case came up to-day and the charge was preferred against Byers a hand-to-hand encounter was narrowly averted. Mr. Rumbaugh says he will produce affidavits to substantiate his charges and Judge Doty intimated that a searching investigation would be made.

Miners Undecidid.

The miners' convention held in Gray's building yesterday by fifty delegates representing the central and northren Pennsylvania coal region, was for the purpose of finding out the sentiment of the miners and inviting them to combine in a movement for an advance in wages, in response to a call signed by W. B. Wilson, president of the convention which was recently held at Dubois, when the miners voted to demand an advance of 5 cents a ton in the mining rate, and failing to get that they would suspend work.

Miners from the districts affected by the rate in the Pittsburg district are in favor of making the demand, while those from districts in the western part of the state are undecided which is the best course to take. Local operators say they do not fear a suspension in this region.—Philipsburg Journal.

Caught a Big Fish.

Wednesday afternoon William Mills caught a sucker in the creek near Criders lumber yard, that measured eighteen inches. It was perhaps the largest fish ever looped out of spring creek this season. It looked more like a whale than anything else, especially about the head which was very much similiar to that of a bear.

On Wednesday evening a party of six Bellefonters took a spin on their wheels to Curtin's works by moonlight. The run was made in several hours and the party returned about midnight feeling much refreshed by their exercise.

We have heard from many of you during the brief period that our advertisement appeared in this space. Any others desiring full reports and statements can secure same by writing to us.

The further opening up of the South Central group of gold mines, and the erection of a Stamp Mill to reduce the company's ore to bullion, is a square, legitimate use of capital.

1. Mr. Barry, formerly of Cripple Creek, the Bonanza gold camp of Colorado, sold his interests there, and bought the Morning Star gold mine, a producer in the vicinity of the South Central group.

2. Captain Plummer, formerly of the Granite Mountain mine, is now working the Delamar Mine, a large producer in the vicinity of the South Central group.

As the Granite Mountain (Gold and Silver Mining Co.) stock rose from about twelve cents a share to over $50 a share, and paid from 25 cents to 50 cents per share per month in dividends, under the superintendency of Captain Plummer, we consider him a pretty safe guide to follow in mining, and we invite you to participate in the nvestment.

Parents Should Read This.

We have been notified by the police to again warn the boys to quit their wild running about the streets at night. The citizens have made complaint to the police about the yelling of boys around town late at night, and it will be their duty to arrest them unless it is stopped at once. If the parents of these boys would only think how annoying this conduct is to peace-loving citizens, they would soon remedy the matter by keeping their children home at night. They might also save themselves the mortification and shame of having their boys being locked up and then they will wish they had taken a little advice.

Pure Brandy.

We call our readers' attention to the following testimonial from undoubted authority on the excellence and purity of Speer's Climax Brandy.

Mr. SPEER:—I congratulate you on a recent unsought testimonial as to the purity of your brandy. Lady Duffus Hardy, of London England, an old acquaintance of mine, on testing from the bottle of brandy we brought from Passaic immediately asked me to get a like one for her, which I did. The English aristocrats, you know, male and female, are pretty good judges of brandy:—I remain, Yours truly,

PRENTICE MULFORD, Editor Erayhac.

Died on Saturday.

On Saturday evening at 6 o'clock Miss Annie Tutt, aged 26 years, daughter of Thomas Tutt died at her home on Beaver street. Miss Tutt had been ailing for about a year and finally she contracted quick consumption and death came to relieve her of all suffering. The funeral services will be held at her late home on Beaver street at 8.30 Tuesday morning after which interment will be made at Potters Mills.

Silver Wedding Anniversary.

On Saturday evening a very enjoyable time was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Noll, on North Allegheny street. Many guests had assembled there to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Noll. Everybody present had a good time and at a reasonable hour left wishing Mr. and Mrs. Noll many more years of happiness.

Pulled Him In.

About 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon John Sullivan, a chain maker struck Bellefonte and staggered around the streets in a very tipsy condition. Officer Garris hauled him to the lock-up and kept him there until evening when he left him go. Sullivan says it is his last trip to the "cooler" and it is to be hoped he will stick to his resolution.

STARTING IN ON ANOTHER YEAR.

The Y. M. C. A. Closes its Twenty-Sixth Year.

The twenty-sixth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association was specially observed on Sunday at the Presbyterian and Methodist churches. It was indeed a fitting close of the twenty-sixth year of one of the grandest causes ever known. For years this association has struggled to keep on top and time and again have the citizens of Bellefonte been asked to contribute to support this noble work which has been doing so much good among the boys and young men in our town. To those who have responded with contributions, the Y. M. C. A. extends their many thanks; and to those who have as yet not subscribed anything they earnestly request that they do so at once.

The services in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening were presided over by Gen. James A. Beaver, who briefly outlined the work of the association during the past years and predicted a grand result in the future if the citizens only gave their liberal support. The other speakers were Rev. R. H. Gilbert of Tyrone, Rev. R. L. Gerhart and Rev. William Laurie.

In the Methodist church President J. W. Gephart presided. He also outlined the good that had already been done, and will be done in the future if the necessary funds to the work with are served. College State Secretary H. McAllister Beaver, Rev. J. W. Rue, and Rev. H. Gilbert also delivered interesting addresses which were listened to with the closest attention.

General Secretary Cota read a statistical report of the work during the past year which was very interesting as well as greatly encouraging to the officers and supporters of the Association.

The report showed that 25,200 visitors had been to the rooms on all occasions during the year, which made an average of 70 per day. The attendance at all religious meetings was 4125. The number of meetings held out of town was seven, with a total attendance of 2200. Four professed conversions were secured during the meetings this year. There are at the present time 52 publications and 1500 books in the library in the reading rooms. Five lectures were held with an attendance of 1260. The report of the treasury showed that $1073 had been spent in Y. M. C. A. work. This entire amount was given by 140 persons. The needs of the work will require $2000 during the coming year in order to make every department of the Association more attractive and inviting to the boys and young men. The general attendance on all occasions was a great increase over last year which shows that the association is being rapidly established on a firm basis.

The credit of the good work and results of the year just closed is due to Secretary Cota who has been an untiring worker in the interest of Bellefonte's young men. It is to be hoped that the people of this town will turn in and help the officers of this association to make the coming year still more successful than the one just closed.

They Put Up the Flag.

On Saturday there seemed to be considerable excitement among the boys of the Bellefonte High school and towards evening they could be seen going one by one up to the Brick school house. It soon became apparent that the class of '98 was going to try to put a flag on top of the big oak tree which stands in the school yard. This did not seem to suit the class of '97 and soon it was reported to them that their rivals were going to put up a '98 flag. In a short time the school yard was alive with excited boys and clubs were flying thick and fast. Collars and cuffs were of little value and many a boy came out of the fray as if he had passed through a cyclone. The battle was waged for two or three hours but at last the class of '98 succeeded in placing their flag high and dry on top of the big tree. Bruises and broken hats did not amount to much as far as glory was concerned and after midnight they withdrew from the field of battle feeling proud of the fact that they were again victorious over the rest of their schoolmates.

Died Saturday Morning.

Saturday morning the three-month old child of Michael Ward, on Logan street, died after a lingering illness. This is the second death in this family within the last two weeks. Mrs. Ward, the mother of the child, dieing a few days ago. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Catholic church.

Ran Off the Track.

About 8 o'clock Monday an empty coal car broke loose on the siding near the gas works and started down the grade at a lively rate until it was switched off and then it jumped the track onto the road. Several ties were torn up but beyond that no serious damage was done.

Keep it Up.

Saturday street commissioner Shaughenssy had several hands sweeping the street in front of the Court house. This is a good idea and should be kept up, as it adds greatly to the appearance of the street.

Handed in His Resignation.

On Tuesday afternoon the members of the Episcopal church were astounded by the sudden action of their rector Rev. Wright by him handing in his resignation to take effect on Dec. 1st.

No reasons were given by Mr. Wright for wishing to resign and the members of his congregation are at a complete loss to account for his unlooked for action. Every body seemed well pleased with his work here and the church has never been in a more flourishing condition than it is just now. That he was dearly loved by the members of his congregation and every one with whom he came in contact with is clearly shown by the many expressions of deep regret that are being heard on all sides. Strange to relate, not even the most intimate friends of Rev. Wright knew of his contemplated action until yesterday afternoon when he handed in his resignation. It is to be hoped he will reconsider his decision and stay where he is, because his popularity extends out of his own church and the good he has already accomplished is apparent on all sides.

All sorts of rumors were afloat last night concerning his reasons for resigning but these were denied by those from whom it was said the reports originated.

Repairing the Leaks.

Superintendent Taylor has a force of men digging up the gas pipes in different parts of the town and repairing the leaks. This is a good idea, and is something that should have been done long ago.

At the court house diamond the tar pavement was torn up for several feet to repair a leak, and then the hole was filled up with ashes and dirt. Whether it has been overlooked or not we do not know but the tar pavement part should be fixed as it makes it very rough as compared to the rest of the street.
